

kazumi HAIR SALON
Dublin

Are you looking for the purest form of cutting, colouring and styling education to allow you to express your talent in full?

At Kazumi our teaching and learning philosophy has been developed for the beginner to the advanced.

Our aim is to share the knowledge gained in the development of our craft from the heart of our creative environment in Molesworth Street, Dublin.

Our courses are developed and designed to be contemporary, relevant and forward thinking.

They are delivered with passion, commitment and technical excellence and you will leave inspired, with real commercial skills plus diplomas and qualifications which are recognised throughout the world.

Through diligent practice of these techniques, you will learn how to control and craft hair, understand how shape and balance works and how to accentuate skin tone and enhance the bone structure of the face.

The Kazumi Academy distinguishes itself by providing small class sizes. By having small classes you will benefit from one to one instruction and feedback on your skills as they develop.

All of our instructors and mentors are renowned professionals with nationally recognised experience in all areas of the hairdressing industry, including;

- In house training;
- Hairdressing education;
- Performing hair shows;
- Photographic work;
- Hairdressing seminars globally ;
- Competition work;

Hairdressing students:

Our courses are available from year 1 trainees up to qualified hairdressers who have been in the industry for years, salons owners, salon educators and those wishing to return to the industry after a career break.

Ronan

Head of Education

Ronan is a former creative director with Vidal Sassoon and has been recruited by Kazumi to lead the cutting courses in our Academy.

Ronan has travelled and instructed hairdressers throughout the world. He has also performed at London and New York fashion weeks. His photographic portfolio is extensive and he is a leader in creating the up and coming new season trends. He has been passing on his knowledge and been at the forefront of the hairdressing industry for over 15 years. His passion for hair and pushing its boundaries is second to none.

Patrick Mooney

Patrick comes to us as an in-house educator from one of the biggest hair companies. Patrick's knowledge of the Science of Colour is second to none. He is one of the privileged few who has achieved Masters Degree in Colour.

Patrick has over 15 years experience within the industry and is a real Master of Colour. His whole approach to education and the way in which he motivates and inspires his students is second to none. You will come away from Patrick's courses with a real desire, passion and thirst for more.

Jenni Crawford

Jenni has experienced so much in the world of hairdressing, she is easily one of the leading figures in this country and respected for her achievements and skills.

Like all of us, Jenny started on the salon floor working her way up to working on Fashion programs, magazines, and platform shows. She is an in-salon educator and also educator for L'Oreal Professionnel, Wella and Schwarzkopf.

Her many achievements include winning the L'Oreal Professionnel Colour Trophy no fewer than 3 times and being crowned Irish Hairdresser of the Year.

Jenni has the same passion and love for this craft that she had on day one of her career.

When Jenni teaches, she likes to tailor workshops to suit the individual or salon and likes to show you ways to become more creative and get your mind thinking outside the box to enhance what you already have.

Jacqui Fay

Jacqui is a Kazumi in-house educator. Her work is regularly seen in Ireland's top glossy magazines and Sunday papers.

Jacqui works tirelessly in the search for perfection and pushing the standards within the industry higher.

She is very well respected and is a judge at some of Ireland's major events. She also is very much in demand with Ireland's A list celebrities and by our television networks.

Sean Dowd

Sean is our Head of Colour department. He is also a key member of our show team, creating wonderful colours for our seasonal collections. He was also a key member of the L'Oreal Professionnel 100th Anniversary team.

Sean started his career with one of the country's biggest brands and worked his way up the ladder, before gaining international experience. He holds all colour qualifications including the much sought after Colour Degree.

Being a previous winner of the prestigious L'Oreal Professionnel Colour Trophy is also another strong string to his bow.

Emma Kennedy

Emma is another of our very strong colour technicians and Kazumi trainers. Her career and achievements so far are a proud addition to anyone's CV. From the L'Oreal Professionnel Colour Trophy both Men's and Women's sections, averts for Guinness and also been on location for most of the countries and location shoots for top glossy magazines.

She also holds the coveted Colour Degree as-well as all colour keys and was a praised member of the Kazumi team that did the L'Oreal Professionnel 100th Anniversary show.

At Kazumi Hair Academy we have dedicated a whole floor to the sole purpose of training. We believe that consistent training is the key to lifelong achievement, no matter how many years you have been in the industry. With our training and inspiration, you will truly discover what we can do with this fabric we call hair

Kazumi is renowned in the world of hair all over Europe for pushing standards higher. All of our tutors have international experience and are the leaders in their chosen aspect of this industry

Kazumi sets the trends that everyone else follows; it's as simple as that. Our Academy has everything you will need to aid you in all aspects of your training; all we need you to bring are an open mind and an enthusiastic heart.

DIPLOMA COURSE

Every one of the key techniques found in the Kazumi philosophy will be passed on to you, the newest generation of qualified hair professionals. The course is divided into five stages, and covers all of the bases needed to provide you with a fast track to hairdressing success.

The nature and content of each stage will develop as you progress through the course, however a few things remain constant. You will receive personal guidance and mentoring from a Kazumi teacher throughout all work sessions. Assessment of your theoretical knowledge and practical skills is on a one-to-one basis, ensuring that you achieve the learning goals required to the Kazumi standard.

There is no finer beginning for anyone wanting to make their first mark on hair design.
